

Dr. Blaylock received her medical degree from Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, Texas and completed her residency training at University of Texas Health and Science Center in San Antonio, Texas. Board certified in Family Medicine, she served in the U.S. Air Force as a Family Medicine Physician and provided comprehensive care to service members and their families.

Services:

- annual wellness exams for men and women
- comprehensive care for infants and children
- chronic care for diabetes, hypertension and hyperlipidemia
- minor skin issues and procedures
- treatment of mild depression and anxiety
- non-emergency acute visits